Astrid Castro is the organizer and facilitator of the panels. Astrid is the founder and director of Adoption Mosaic, whose mission is to connect, honor, and serve the adoption constellation through innovation in education, practices, and support services. www.adoptionmosaic.com

For the past twenty-five plus years Astrid has traveled the country to lead youth groups and present workshops on various topics focusing on both adoption and race. Prior to starting Adoption Mosaic, Astrid owned an adoption consulting business, in addition to working and serving on boards in both the private and public sectors of various adoption organizations: The Rocky Mountain Adoption Exchange, Oregon Post Adoption Resource Center (ORPARC), Holt International, Rocky Mountain Adoption Exchange, North American Council on Adoptable Children (NACAC), Northwest Adoptive Parent Association (NAFA), Spoon Foundation, to name just a few.

Astrid has taken her personal life experiences such as her adoption, being a woman of color who grew up in racial isolation, and uses these experiences as fuel to propel her professionally in her efforts to support the adoption constellation.
